From OTHER PAPERS.

LONDON, AUGUST 2.

THURSDAY ſome particular diſpatches were ſent off from the Secretary of State's office, to his Excellency Francis Bernard, Eſq; governor of the province of Maſſachuſetts Bay in New England.

Letters from Venice, dated July 7, ſays, "The Sieur Valſamacki, conſul of this republic at Patraſſo in the Morea, will ſoon arrive here from Conſtantinople, being ſent home by order of the Grand Seignor. This man having obtained leave of the Senate to go to Conſtantinople, under pretence of ſome domeſtic affairs, as ſoon as he arrived there, preſented to the Grand Seignor as he was going to Moſque, a memorial wherein he offered to deliver up to him the iſland of Corfu, (which has been the property of the republic ever ſince the end of the 14th century) and alſo to turn Mahometan, if his Highneſs would make him governor of the Morea; but the Grand Seignor, equally deteſting the traitor and the treaſon, ordered him immediately to be arreſted and delivered to our ambaſſador, in order to be ſent home and puniſhed as he deſerves."

They write from Rochfort, that Monſ. Bougainville was daily expected there to go on board a King's frigate, on a ſecret expedition for new diſcoveries.

It is ſaid the moſt ſtrenuous endeavours will be uſed next ſeſſion, to bring upon the carpet a place-bill.

AUGUST 5.

Sunday Mr. Willes kiſſed His Majeſty's hand on being appointed Solicitor-General.

Friday Iſaac Barré, Eſq; member for Wycomb, kiſſed His Majeſty's hand on being appointed Joint Vice Treaſurer of Ireland.

To-day the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury opened their commiſſion and held a board.

Saturday ſome diſpatches were ſent to Lord George Lennox, His Majeſty's Miniſter at Paris,

Commodore Spry, on relieving Commodore Harriſon at Gibraltar, is to proceed to Algiers and Tripoly, to execute a commiſſion of importance to the Britiſh commerce in the Mediterranean.

Letters from Paris mention, that the laſt propoſition of the court of Verſailles to Paſchal de Paoli, General of the Corſicans, had not been accepted; in conſequence of which, ſome additional battallions of French infantry were ſpeedily to be embarked at Marſailles and Toulon, to join the auxiliary troops under the command of the Count de Marbœuf.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, July 4.

"The maſters of ſeveral veſſels arrived here from Tripoli, bring advice, that they are arming there their largeſt veſſels, and making other diſpoſitions for repulſing the Venetian ſquadron, in caſe it ſhould commit any acts of hoſtility againſt that port. The laſt letters from the Levant continue, indeed, ſtill to make mention of the march of the Georgian army, and of its ſucceſs againſt the Grand Seignior's troops; but they contradict each other ſo very much, both with reſpect to the eſſential parts of the operations, as well as with regard to its progreſs and concluſion, that we know not how to believe them."

It is expected there will be a more formidable oppoſition formed the next meeting of parliament, than any that has yet appeared.

We are informed that a noble Duke, who has ever been diſtinguiſhed by his loyalty and attachment to the preſent royal family, has, pretty to his honour, a ſecond time refuſed a penſion, on being removed from a high poſt in the adminiſtration.

A ſcheme is ſaid to have been laſt week communicated to a great man in power, which will benefit the revenue three hundred thouſand pounds ſterling annually, without the impoſition of a ſingle tax.

It is with the greateſt pleaſure we can aſſure the public, that the adminiſtration are determined to relieve the poor induſtrious part of his Majeſty's ſubjects throughout the whole kingdom, from that unequal, inadequate, and oppreſſive tax, the additional three ſhillings per barrel tax on beer and ale. And that this will be accompliſhed without the impoſition of any new duty, by ſome amendments in the preſent mode of collecting the duties on ſpirits foreign and domeſtick, both which may be juſtly deemed unneceſſary luxuries in compariſon of malt liquors, the conſumption of which has gradually and largely been decreaſed ſince the three ſhillings duty took place. At the ſame time the public are not without hopes, that the conſtitutional motion made laſt year, and publickly approved of by the late great Commoner, and the preſent able C—— of the E—, in a certain aſſembly, for an enquiry into the laws of exciſe, and into the execution of them, will be purſued with proper ſpirit.

It is ſaid the D—— are greatly alarmed, on account of their having moſt notoriouſly broke the treaties of peace and marine, concluded with England in the years of 1667 and 1674, and are afraid they ſhall now be called upon to anſwer for all their paſt conduct towards us.

It is ſaid that ſeveral able engineers will ſoon embark for Gibraltar and Minorca, in order to take a ſurvey of the fortifications of theſe places, and to make a report of their preſent ſtate and condition.

Thurſday general Burton and his lady, who lately arrived from America, were introduced to their majeſties at St. James's, and were graciouſly received.

We hear that governor Pinfold does not return to that character to Barbadoes.

On Wedneſday laſt ſix principal merchants, viz. Trecothick, Long, Hanbury, Morſe, Stewart, and Vaughan, deputed from the merchants of London, trading to the Weſt-Indies and to North-America, waited on the Marquis of Rockingham with an addreſs, in which they remark, that his lordſhip being no longer in a public ſtation, they are exempt even from the ſuſpicion of flattery; and expreſſing their ſenſe of the eſſential benefits received, during a period, ſhort indeed, but truly remarkable for for the nobleſt exertions in favour of the civil and commercial intereſts of theſe kingdoms; happily diſpelling the threatening clouds, and opening a ſyſtem of commerce, liberal and uſeful beyond all former examples.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order grants to be made out, by the governor of Eaſt Florida, of ſeveral millions of acres, to different noblemen and gentlemen of rank, and ſeveral ſhips are engaged to go to Hamburgh to carry German ſettlers to fulfil the terms of their grant. A baronet of ſome eminence in the city is gone to his own country, to export 300 hundred Highlanders, his relations, and from whom he is deſcended, to ſettle on the lands granted to him, and propoſes ſupplying them with 3000 negroes, to ſupport the undertaking, which is a very neceſſary ſtep.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant to Mr. Maſon, who was ſecretary to his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, a penſion of 200 l. per annum for life.

As a proof of the weakneſs of France, and conſequently of the falſity of thoſe reports which would make us believe that kingdom in a condition to enter into a new war with us, a gentleman, juſt arrived from Paris, poſitively aſſures us, that the grenadiers in every corps had inſiſted upon an advance of pay; to which the court, from their inability to quell the mutiny, had reluctantly complied. The ſame gentleman alſo adds, that they have had the greateſt difficulty to man the ſhips lately ſent to the Indies; and that it would be almoſt impoſſible to equip a fleet of any conſiderable number.

Letters from Warſaw mention an inſurrection amongſt the people in that city, who refuſe to take the coin at the values lately fixed by the board of treaſury.

Tueſday Sir Sidney Meadows, Knt. Marſhal, reckon'd the beſt horſeman in Europe, rode four or five managed horſes, one after the other, before his Majeſty in Richmond park, who expreſs'd the higheſt approbation.

An ingenious ſhip-builder is ſoon to embark for Ruſſia, at the requeſt of an Engliſh merchant ſettled in that empire, who has got a grant of a large diſtrict of land from her Imperial Majeſty, on condition of furniſhing a man of war every year for the ſervice of that ſtate.

One of the ſchemes of the right hon. the E. of C. is ſaid to be converting of Milford-haven, in Pembrokeſhire, into a royal arſenal and dock yard.

A letter from Aranjuez, dated June 30, says, "Don Francisco de Salleſar y Corvetto, a native of Murcia, where his father was regidor, was last Friday publickly degraded at Madrid, from the rank of nobility, had his tongue and his right hand cut off, and afterwards was hanged. His crime was assassinating some persons, and having formed the horrid design of laying his sacrilegious hands upon the king and the royal family."

On Wednesday last the hon. major general Morris, governor of Quebec, had the honour of being introduced to his Majesty at St. James's, and met with a most gracious reception.

Sir Charles Saunders, one of the lords of the admiralty, has resigned; and it is said, that the hon. Admiral Keppel and John Yorke, Esqr of the same board, will also resign.

Sir Alexander Grant, Bart. an eminent West-India merchant, and member of parliament, has obtained the grant of a considerable tract of fine land in this province of East Florida.

The public may be assured of the authenticity of the Patagonians being as tall a people as has been represented, viz. between eight and nine feet high. As a corroboration, one of the ship's people brought home with him a skeleton of one of their hands, which measured six cubit inches from the joint of the wrist to the fingers end, and every way large in proportion, their children are five feet high at two years old. They do not inter their dead, but by a preparation eat off the flesh, and hang the bones in a box up in a tree, many of which were seen, and might easily have been brought off.

It is said that the count de Guerchy will not return to London till a little before the meeting of the parliament.

We hear three companies of foot will soon be embarked for Antigua, to recruit the regiment there, which has suffered greatly through an epidemical distemper.

AUGUST 14.

The paragraph in one of the morning papers, mentioning the death of John Wilkes, Esqr at Paris, is entirely without foundation, as no account of it has been received here by his relations or friends.

The profits of the office of chancellor being so immense, it is said that after the present nobleman retires from it, endeavours will be made to throw it into another form, in order to diffuse the advantages arising therefrom into more purses. The continuation of that great office but one year, in one person, would be a means of enriching a great number of families, whereas it now only enriches one in the course of many years.

We hear likewise that the tellers of the exchequer are become so enormous in their profits, that they will be split into many more, to accommodate as much as possible those who are craving after them, they being, at present, bespoke faster than they become vacant.

It is whispered that a great confidence subsists between two personages of high rank, and that the lady will for the future reside altogether in her native country.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 20, 1766.

ALL the veſſels that have arrived here this week have met with ſuch terrible gales of wind and hurricanes, that there is reaſon to apprehend we ſhall hear of great damage done to the ſhipping in the Weſt-Indies ſeas. — Capt. William White, of the ſhip Carolina Packet, from London, on the 24th of September, in lat. 25, 20. long. 50 W. felt the moſt violent hurricane he ever was in, which began the day before; his ſhip narrowly eſcaped foundering; and he afterwards ſpoke with a Dane from St. Croix, who told him, it was very ſevere at that iſland the 23d — Capt. William Mills, of the ſloop Betſey, from St. Kitt's, met with one on the 11th inſt. in lat. 31, 30. long. 77, 20. which laſted 24 hours; and off Georgia, on the 12th, with another, in which his ſails were all torn, and he received other damage.—Capt. William Gickie, of the ſloop King George, from the Bay of Honduras, was likewiſe in one, on the 12th and 13th inſtant, in lat. 30, 37, on the coaſt of Florida: He ſuppoſes that the major part of ſeven ſail he was in company with, muſt have been put aſhore, amongſt them a ſhip called the America, from the Bay bound for New-York, which he had before ſpoke with.

His Pall was ſupported by ſix of the Members of His Majeſty's honourable Council, and His Excellency the right hon. Lord Charles Greville Montagu, with His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor followed, as chief amongſt a great number of mourners.

By a gentleman lately arrived at Savannah in Georgia, from Cuba, we are informed, that all the brick and ſtone buildings in Bayama, Yara, and Puerto del Principe, on that iſland, were totally deſtroyed by the ſame ſhock of an Earthquake that demoliſhed St. Jago, on the 11th of June; that ſome hundreds (not thouſands) of people loſt their lives therein: That a general deſertion prevailed among the Spaniſh troops, from an apprehenſion of the hard labour and other difficulties they might be obliged to undergo, in conſequence of that dreadful calamity: And that ſhocks continue to be repeatedly felt in that iſland every day, 'till the firſt of Auguſt, the day the gentleman left it.

The hon. William Grover, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of Eaſt Florida, is arrived at Georgia, from England, on his way to St. Auguſtine.

The Fire-Masters

GIVE NOTICE,

THAT in consequence of the great neglect of many of the inhabitants of Charles-Town, in providing buckets and ladders, keeping their chimneys swept clean, and of observing many other directions, required by the Laws now in force, wherein the safety and interest of the whole community are deeply concerned, they are determined to carry the said laws strictly into execution; and, on Monday the third day of November next, will examine all the houses in Charles-Town: And that none may plead ignorance, the following articles are now published for their information, which the Fire-Masters request all persons concerned strictly to observe.

GABRIEL MANIGAULT,
BENJAMIN SMITH,
THOMAS SMITH,
GEORGE SHEED,
WILLIAM ANCRUM.
} Fire-Masters.

IT IS ENACTED, That every owner or tenant of every dwelling-house in Charles-Town, shall provide a leathern bucket of six quarts at least, for every fire-hearth in such dwelling-house, one fourth part of the whole to be sent to the messenger of the fire-engines; they are also to provide one ladder, of a convenient length for each dwelling house: Which buckets and ladders are to be always ready in case of fire, on pain of forfeiting the sum of Ten Pounds; with a penalty of Thirty Shillings for every bucket withheld, or refused in time of fire, and if any buckets shall be lost at such time, the Fire-Masters are to supply the owners with others in the room of them.

THE charge of providing buckets and ladders is to be borne and paid by the landlords and owners of houses; but as the said charges may be often paid by the tenant in possession, who is made liable in case of neglect, it is lawful for such tenant, to deduct so much out of his rent as shall be from time to time expended in providing buckets and ladders.

IT shall be lawful for the Fire-Masters to enter into the houses, out-houses, stables and yards, of every owner or tenant, to enquire if they are provided with buckets and ladders; and also to view, search and examine, if any quantity of hay, straw, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, oil, tallow, saltpetre or combustible matters are lodged in any place within the same, which may be in danger of taking fire; and if they find there is danger, it is lawful for them, after having admonished the owner of such house or houses, to remove such combustible matter, (in case of refusing or neglecting to remove the same) at the charge of the owner. All persons who shall suffer their chimneys to take fire, and blaze out at the top, shall forfeit the sum of Five Pounds.

UPON any alarm in the night time, every inhabitant is to repair to the place where the fire is, with his arms, under the penalty of Forty Shillings, and shall lodge them in such places, near the fire, as shall be appointed by the Fire-Masters, and the commander of the watch is to order a party of the watch to guard the same. All goods and effects removed, are directed to be carried to the place where the arms are directed to be lodged and guarded. The constables are to appear with their staves, and assist in guarding the said goods and effects, 'till removed to some other place of safety, under the penalty of Five Pounds. Any person that embezzles any goods or effects, are to be pilloried, have their ears cut off, and to forfeit four times the value thereof.

THE Fire-Masters are impowered to command any person or persons whatsoever, to aid and assist in pulling down houses or buildings, for extinguishing of fires, to the utmost of their strength, power and ability; and in case of refusal, if a white person, he shall forfeit Five Pounds, and if a slave, be shall be publicly whipped. All persons who shall do or execute any thing in obedience to the Fire-Masters, are indemnified against all persons whatsoever.

REMARKABLE or considerable services, in preventing or extinguishing fires, are to be rewarded by the Fire-Masters; and in case any person shall be wounded, maimed, or disabled, in endeavouring to prevent or extinguish fire, a reasonable allowance, maintenance, or provision will be made for such person.

THE masters or managers of the engines, may command any person or persons whatsoever, that shall be nearest at hand, when any fire breaks out to aid and assist in conveying the engine to the place where the fire shall be. A white person refusing shall forfeit Forty Shillings, and a slave is to be publicly whipped. A reward of Forty Shillings to every white person, and Twenty Shillings to every slave, to be paid to those who carry the first engine to the place where the fire first breaks out.

THE Co-partnership of MILES BREWTON, & THOMAS LOUGHTON SMITH, being expired, and the former intending to go for England in the SPRING, they are determined finally to settle their affairs by that time.

THEREFORE, notice is hereby given, to all WITHOUT DISTINCTION, whose debts became payable preceding the first of January last, that unless they are discharged, or otherwise fully satisfied, by the first day of January next, they will then assuredly be delivered to an attorney, to be recovered according to law: And all those whose contracts became due since January last, it is expected will discharge their respective debts by the first of March next at latest.

THE bonds, notes, and open accompts, due for goods sold by Robert Miller, at Bacon-Bridge, and unpaid on the first of January next, will also without distinction, be then placed in the hands of an attorney to be sued.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 27, 1766.

LAST Tuesday arrived here Capt. Catlin, from Bermuda, who informs us, that, on the 6th inſtant, a new North-American built ſhoop, or ſchooner, of about 50 feet keel, came aſhore, bottom up, on the ſouth ſide of that iſland, which had been laden with lumber, but he can give no further deſcription of her. He alſo informs us, that on the 8th, a large French ſhip, laden with white ſugars, indico and coffee, from Cape-Francois for France, ſtruck upon the rocks at the weſt end of the ſaid iſland, and immediately ſunk, ſo that nothing was ſaved but the people.

On Wedneſday alſo arrived here his Majeſty's packet-boat the Grenville, commanded by Capt. John Siddall, from Penſacola; in the paſſage from whence, in lat. 23, 30, between the Matanzas and Havana, on the 12th inſtant, at 6 o' clock in the evening, he met with a moſt ſevere ſtorm or hurricane, that continued 24 hours without abating, wherein the Grenville narrowly eſcaped foundering, having her main and fore-ſails blown away at one blaſt, being waterlogg'd, and ſhipping ſeveral ſeas, particularly one abaft, which filled the cabin, damaged the mails, and did other hurt. The ſtormy weather continued four or five days after, but not ſo violent.—In this packet are come paſſengers, lieut. col Edward Maxfield, and the hon. lieutenant Markam Ramſay, of his Majeſty's 21ſt regiment, Capt. John Roſs, of the 31ſt, Mr. Franks and daughter, &c.

The ſame day put in here, the brigt. Tryon, capt. Thomas Marnan, from Jamaica, bound for Cape-Fear, having met with ſeveral hard gales of wind from the 12th to the 15th inſtant, in which ſhe received a good deal of damage in her ſails, &c. and was alſo in want of proviſions. On the 15th, capt. Marnan took up capt. William Turner, and the crew, of the ſchooner Penſacola, bound for Philadelphia, which had then been upwards of fifty days out from the Bay of Honduras, and was in the greateſt diſtreſs imaginable, for they had had nothing to ſubſiſt on for 30 days but a biſket a day per man, and in the ſtorm on the 12th, in lat. 24, and long. 84 beſides being very leaky, the ſchooner had loſt her main-maſt and all her ſails, neither of which, or indeed proviſions, was Capt. Marnan able to ſupply; he therefore brought them here. The ſame day capt. Marnan ſaw a large ſhip aſhore on Cape Florida, which he ſuppoſed to be a homeward-bound Jamaica-man, but is more likely to be one from the Bay, mentioned by capt. Gickie in our laſt.

The laſt letters from Weſt-Florida and New-Orleans, adviſe, that the war between the Chickaſaws and Creek Indians continued to be carried on with the utmoſt inveteracy; that hitherto the former had loſt the moſt men; but it was thought they would in the end prove too powerful for the Creeks.—That every thing was quiet and went on well at the Illinois, where the trade for furrs, ſkins, &c. was great beyond conception. And that the Spaniſh governor of New-Orleans had iſſued a proclamation, forbidding any Engliſh veſſel coming thither, till they have obtained his permiſſion to paſs the Fort at Balize, which he grants, upon the invoices of their cargoes being laid before him, and his being ſuffered to fix the prices they ſhall ſell at.

Friday ſailed for New-Providence, his Majeſty's ſhip the Eſcorte, commanded by capt. Tho. Fuley.

Saturday arrived here the ſloop Tryal, Francis Hickey, maſter, from Honduras, in great diſtreſs. He left the Bay the 6th of September, on the 11th ſprung his maſt in the partners, afterwards in another part, and has met with nothing but ſtormy weather during his whole paſſage. Even the day before he came in, he met with a gale of wind which forced him upon the ſhoal called the Rattle-Snake, where he loſt his rudder.

The ſame day, being the anniverſary of our moſt gracious Sovereign's acceſſion to the Throne of Great Britain, &c. the Light Infantry company, commanded by Capt. Thomas Savage, celebrated the ſame in a proper manner, and had an elegant entertainment at Mr. Dillon's, to which all the officers of the Charles-Town regiment of Foot Militia, and of the Artillery Company were invited.

Sunday ſailed on a cruze His Majeſty's ſhip the Sardoine, commanded by James Hawker, Eſquire. The Sardoine's Tender, a cutter, ſailed at the ſame time.

The ſame evening arrived here, the brigt. Charles-Town-Packet, capt. Eaſtwick, from Philadelphia, in which came paſſenger, Mr. Peter Horry; and by whom we learn, that Joſeph Galloway Eſq; was choſen ſpeaker of the new houſe of repreſentatives of the province of Pennſylvania.

This morning between 12 and 1 o'clock, a Fire was perceived to have broke out in the upper part of one of Mr. Moſes Mitchell's tenements in Union-ſtreet, the corner of Unity-Alley, occupied by Mrs. Stilichurch, ſuppoſed by careleſſneſs in not putting out a candle, which alarmed the Town exceedingly, and filled us with apprehenſions that it would be impoſſible to ſave that quarter of it, where the houſes in general are old, of timber, and built very cloſe: But, there being providentially very little wind; the alarm quickly ſpread; the gentlemen who have the charge of the Fire-Engines being ſoon at the ſpot, and exerting themſelves; and the inhabitants in general extremely active in affording every neceſſary aſſiſtance; the Fire in about two hours, was happily got over, without any other damage than the loſs of the roofs of that, and the two adjoining tenements. Black Jerry (the Fiſherman) as uſual, upon this occaſion diſtinguiſhed himſelf, as did ſeveral others, whoſe names we have not learnt: But at the ſame time, ſome villains, under pretence of aſſiſting people who were removing their goods to places of more ſafety, committed the moſt audacious robberies, for which it is hoped, they will meet with condign puniſhment.——The Light Infantry and the Artillery Companies were under arms, almoſt as ſoon as the alarm was given, and by patroling the ſtreets, and other ſervices, behaved in a manner that reflects honour on them.—— The Watch Company alſo behaved remarkably well.

We hear from Port-Royal, that on Friday the 29th inſtant, was launched there, a ſhip that will carry a thouſand barrels of rice, called the St. Helena, built by Mr. Robert Watts, ſuperior in the quality of the timber, but reckoned equal in beauty and goodneſs of the work to any ſhip ever built in America.

From the ſame place we learn, that about a fortnight ſince died, at the advanced age of 87 years, Mrs Reynolds, a native of this province.

Advice having been received of His Majeſty's Packet-Boat the Hillſborough's arrival at Jamaica, that veſſel may be expected here about the 15th of next month. The Hillſborough is now commanded by Capt. William Adams.

Laſt night died, Mrs. Agnes Lind, Milliner, a very induſtrious good woman, the wife of Mr. Thomas Lind.

By Capt. Officer, juſt arrived from St. Kitts, and Capt. Patterſon from Dominica, we have advice of another ſevere Hurricane having been felt at thoſe and other neighbouring iſlands, on the 13th, 14th and 15th of September, in which all the veſſels at Monſerrat, and Dominica (except Capt. Patterſon's) and 13 at St. Kitts were drove aſhore and loſt, and many others put to ſea! And, that at Monſerrat, it was attended with a terrible inundation from the mountains, which deſtroyed half the town, and reduced upwards of two hundred people to the greateſt diſtreſs imaginable.

In Capt. Scherberhorn, juſt arrived from New-York, are arrived, a detachment of His Majeſty's Royal American regiment, Mr. Theodore Gaillard, jun. Merchant, &c.
